to John C. Bardoff. In the final T. S. Taylor led the bunch down the homestretch, crossing the tape in 3 minutes 22 seconds, the fastest of the three heats. The spill which brought disaster to the riders occurred in the two-mile handicap. The first heat was pulled off in good shape, J. C. Bardoff winning the event in a close and exciting sprint. Time, 5.34 2-5. At the crack of the pistol the riders started off in a bunch from the tape line in the second heat and soon overhauled several of the handicap men. He continued to ride, and easily won the event, but was disqualified by the judges and the first place awarded to W. Shaw, who was a couple of wheel lengths behind him. The time was 5.50. After a short rest the final was put on at the close of the program. The event proved a loafing match, being the slowest of the three heats. The event was won by Taylor who finished second in the first heat, in a spirited finish. Time, 6.40. The one-mile police race, open to members of the metropolitan police department, did not take place. The entries included C. L. Bode, P. Holmes, A. Lynn and A. Hughlett. The shortest race of the meet was the half-mile open, with two heats and a final. The race was wone by J. C. Bardoff and was one of the prettlest cards on the program. The time was 1.31. The last exciting event of the day was

PHILADELPHIA, June 11 .- Jack Blackgreat middleweight in a six-round contest at the National Athletic Club last night. O'Brien clearly had the better of the first and third rounds, in which he rushed the mulatto, using his weight in the clinches. The second, fifth and sixth were all Blackburn's, while honors were even in the fourth. O'Brien started in to fight Blackburn, using a straight right-hand punch to the used a double blow, a right to the body and the same blow to the chin. These tactics kept his opponent at bay and prevented him from using his straight lefthand jab. O'Brien lost his balance in the first round, going to the floor to his knees. Immediately he arose and rushed deprived Miss Osgood of the title a year

But Blackburn proved himself to be in better condition, and he possessed more speed As O'Brien rushed Blackburn would catch him with a tantalizing left-hand jab in the mouth, which cut his lips, making the blood trickle down his chin. The middleweight made a frantic effort to reach Blackburn's jaw with a right-hand swinging lead, and once the mulatto went down on his knees in a corner of the ring to avoid one of these punches. LAWN TENNIS SURPRISE.

Championship Tourney.

NEW YORK, June 11 .- Charles M. Bull, ir., furnished a surprise by defeating Raymond D. Little in the third round of the metropolitan championship lawn tennis tournament yesterday on the courts of the West Side Club by a score of Early in the match it became evident that Bull had carefully studied the game of his opponent. He was up to the net on everything and cut the ball off so short across the court or shot it past Little so deftly that the latter became disconcritical periods. It was all Little could do to bring the games to deuce at 5-all in the first set. Bull put on more speed as he saw he had his opponent worried.

In the second set Little's service became weak. He made many double faults, and afforded Bull such spacious openings that he was passed for the ace with great frequency. So erratic did Little become that in the final game Bull earned only one ace, all of the other points being scored on Little's outs and nets. Mrs. William H. Pouch and Miss Louise Hammond came up to the semi-final round of the women's singles. Mrs. Pouch played a steady game against Miss E Marcus, defeating her by the score of 2-6, 6-3, 8-6. Miss Marcus was twice within a point of the match, but could not negotiate the points. Miss Hammond played fast tennis against Mrs. A. G. Miles and won at 6-3, 7-5.
